Penne Perry has worked in the health care field for the last 24 years. Penne obtained her associates in Health Information Management from Tacoma Community College and successfully became a Registered Health Information Technician in 1989. While working as a coder at St. Joseph Medical Center, she applied for and accepted the position of Cancer Registrar in 1990. Penne became a Certified Tumor Registrar in 1993, after 3 years of on the job training. Penne is currently the Lead Cancer Registrar for Franciscan Health System which includes St. Joseph Medical Center, St. Francis Hospital, St. Clare Hospital, St. Anthony Hospital, and St. Elizabeth Hospital. In her role as Lead Cancer Registrar, she is responsible not only for the day to day registry duties for St. Joseph Medical Center, but also oversees all aspects of the Cancer Registry which includes training, data reporting, coordinating the Cancer Committee and ensuring that registry data is collected in a timely manner and is accurate. Penne also serves as a liaison with the Commission on Cancer of the American College of Surgeons, the Cancer Surveillance System (SEER), the Washington State Cancer Registry, and the Catholic Health Initiatives just to name a few.
