Speaker BIO:

John Chen - CEO & the "Big Kid"

What you did prior to Geoteaming?: During the ten years I worked at Microsoft, I shipped ten products, earned two US Patents and helped eight teams collaborate to ship Exchange, the first client-server email product with over 100 million client licenses. All the while, I was busy at work developing my unique "competitive-collaborative" designs that are an integral part of PLAYTIME and Geoteaming.

Outside of work you might find me...Spending time with my three wonderful children, Max, KJ & Kelson.

What are two of your life goals? 1. Win a World Poker Tour tournament 2. Ride my Harley Fat Boy on Route 66
