Spinal Fusion Coding - Inpatient: ICD-10-PCS
By
Linda Dawson

Linda graduated from Portland Community College in 1975 in the Medical Records Technology program. She has been working in HIM since that time, (over 40 years) both in the US and in Canada.

She began coding with ICD-8 and has been through the changes of ICD-9-CM, ICD-9-CA (Canada), ICD-10-CA and then ICD-10-CM and PCS in October 2016. She is an AHIMA Trained ICD-10-CM/PCS Trainer and has taught coding at Portland Community College, her Alma Mater in the online HIM program and now Providence. Her current position at Providence is IP coder trainer/auditor and she works on the Coding QI Compliance Team.

She has worked closely with CDI programs in Oregon, educating CDI's in Coding and was a Coding CDI Liaison for a few years before joining the Providence Regional QI Team. She is an advocate for correct documentation and coding for reimbursement, quality of care, compliance, and statistical purposes. She shares her love of coding with those she educates.
