Current State of Health Insurance in Washington State and the Nation

AnnaLisa Gellermann is the Deputy Insurance Commissioner of Policy and Legislation for Commissioner Mike Kreidler. She has worked at the Office of the Insurance Commissioner (OIC) since 2013 helping to implement the Affordable Care Act (ACA), initially as the Deputy for Legal Affairs. She is now leading the policy team in interpreting and implementing the federal changes to the ACA, the Washington Market Stabilization Initiative, and emerging insurance issues including autonomous vehicles, climate investments, and credit scoring.

Prior to joining the OIC, AnnaLisa worked for the Department of Labor and Industries as an executive manager in Insurance Services. She began her state career as an Assistant Attorney General under former Governor Christine Gregoire, and also while serving with Rob McKenna, AnnaLisa received his Award of Excellence for exceptional service. AnnaLisa graduated Magna Cum Laude from Seattle University School of Law where she served on the Law Review, and Moot Court Board and attained certification in the National Order of the Barristers.
